I am delighted to know that KP Training College is publishing a dedicated "News Letter" on the occasion of 150th year of foundation of Kayastha Pathshala. On this occasion. I convey my heartiest blessings for successful and dignified celebration of 150th year of foundation with memorable, cheerful and happiness. I wish that in one of celebration, you may organize some historical events related with the life of Munshi Kali Prasad Kulbhaskar, who was there for a short-span of period, but even then he lived for social and cultural up-liftment of Society as a whole by establishing the educational Institutions. I convey my sincere thanks and best wishes to all the staff of K.P. Training College for the successful celebration of the events this

Ch. Jitendra Nath Singh

Message of the Dean College Development

It is my privilege to remember a great soul through this message. Munshi Kali Prasad born on 03,12, 1840 & died on 09,11,1886) left this world for heavenly abode just at the age of 46, but he made himself immortal due to his great deeds. Munshiji was a saintly man who gave everything back to the society. This was the rarest of the rare act and everybody should remember it till eternity that he bequeathed all his savings, earnings & property for the betterment of his community.

I pay my deepest homage to the great soul on this occasion and pray to the almighty that Munshiji should always be alive in our heart: Shat-shat Naman
